leans floating dock of the United States navy was received here to-day with an extraordinary outpouring of people and elaborate ceremonies, in which federal, State and city officials and members of Congress participated. The weather was ideal and as the afternoon was made a semi-holiday, thousands went to the naval reservation on the west bank of the river. Soon after daylight the immense steel structures was safely cradled beside its shore connections below Algiers. The dock was gaily decorated in bunting and as it was slowly pulled into the piers was greeted with a boisterous demonstration from whistles affoat and ashore. In spite of the early hour thousands of men, women and children lined the river banks and halled the arrival. The ceremonies of reception commenced at 2 o'clock and lasted well into the night. concluding with an elaborate land parade in Algiers and a display of fireworks. Governor Heard, Louislana congressmen.
